Dear Mr. Van Slyck:

Thank you for sending me a set of the Foreign Policy Association's new leaflet series on "Great Decisions 1959."

Although I have not yet had an opportunity to look at these materials in detail, at first glance both their format and content seem to present an interesting and thoughtful approach to the public discussion of foreign affairs.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

Allen W. Dulles
Director

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

1. This memorandum recommends action in paragraph 3.
2. The attached new "fact sheet" pamphlet series of the Foreign Policy Association, sent to you recently, contains three references to CIA:
  - a.) two quotations from the Director's address before the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, April 28, 1958, commenting on Soviet economic growth and foreign-aid programs (see marked passages in "Fact Sheet" nos. 2 and 6)
  - b.) reference to CIA on an organization chart of the U.S. Government (see "Fact Sheet" no. 9)
3. I recommend, as a non-committal acknowledgement, the attached reply for your signature.
